Who’s who?

• Your colleagues in Israel:
  • Many newcomers, small teams

• The Israeli HEIs:
  • Fist steps to strategy, building facilities, no funds

• The Israeli Student:
  • Age, culture, religion, almost no outbound mobility

• The Israeli administrative staff
  • new opportunity! Mostly not very internationalized

• The Israeli academic staff:
  • international research, not rewarded for teaching abroad, limitation in nr. of travels abroad

Strategy and working process

• General:
  - Growing interest in student mobility - national policy
  - Learning by doing
  - Difficulty to adjust to the working process of EU HEIs
  - Growing professionalism and structured working process (but not funds)
  - QA? Mobility Tool
  - So far little means for marketing -> Study in Israel

• Main Research Universities:
  - From “yes why not” to strategic partnerships
  - Research based/oriented partner search
  - Involve their staff in choosing partners

• Small institutions and newcomers:
  - Focus on Staff mobility
  - From “yes why not” to strategic partnerships
  - Growing proactive partner search
About 50% of HEIs participate in E+ Mobility
